

They came in silence while the sun was sleeping
sneaking around with no horses to ride.
Torches won't blaze, hiding shades in the darkness,
crawling with care, moving forward to the ground.

Shield spear and sword ready to bring a bloodsheed
"No men alive will remain in this land
The hand of Death shows no mercy on slaughter.
Conquer, destroy in the still of the night.

Assault!
Assault!
As the enemies charge in the lines!
Assault!
Assault!

They won't ever see once more the light

The gold doesn't worth as the pleasure of crushing bones against axe. Skulls turned to dust.
Drinking the blood, turning fatherless children.
Ravish and steal is just part of the crime...

Assault!
Assault!
As the enemies charge in the lines!
Assault!
Assault!

They won't ever see once more the light

Watch them all running in fear, trying to find a refuge.
Shelter? No escape they will find, for the merciless steel they will meet.

ASSAULT!
ASSAULT!
As the enemies charge in the lines!
ASSAULT!
ASSAULT!
They won't ever see once more the light
ASSAULT!
ASSAULT!
Meet the blade, now is your time to die.
ASSAULT!
ASSAULT!
ASSAULT!
ASSAULT!
